

Garden Wildlife

What animals can you see in a British garden?

SUMMARY

Ben films wildlife in and around his garden identifying rabbits, their features and eating habits. He also spots a woodpecker and squirrels before seeing baby rabbits before they retreat to their burrows.

Check you know the keywords

rabbits, woodpecker, squirrels, burrows, habitat, home, observation

Watch Ben's video and find out

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/9460.html>

- 1) What does Ben usually do in his treehouse?
- 2) How long does he spend in the treehouse every day?
- 3) What animals can he see by the goalposts?
- 4) What do rabbits do when they see danger?
- 5) What parts of the rabbits are:
very strong?
very cute?
- 6) What do rabbits like to eat?
- 7) Why is Ben's mum cross with (=angry with) the rabbits?
- 8) Ben goes inside the house. What animals does he see?
- 9) What is the squirrel doing?
- 10) What is the woodpecker doing?
- 11) Where are the baby rabbits living?
- 12) What are rabbit babies called?
- 13) What is the name of the holes in the ground where rabbits live?

Check your answers

- 1) He tries to film wildlife.
- 2) An hour or two.
- 3) He can see rabbits.
- 4) They stop, listen and turn their heads around.
- 5) Very strong – legs. Very cute – small fluffy tail
- 6) Grass, cucumber, lettuce and carrots.
- 7) They eat the vegetables in the vegetable patch.
- 8) He sees a woodpecker (bird) and squirrel.
- 9) It is digging for nuts.
- 10) It is looking for food in the grass.
- 11) They live under Ben's shed.
- 12) Kittens.
- 13) A rabbit burrow.