

Mary Queen of Scots returns to Scotland

Mary, Queen of Scots (from Linlithgow, about 20 minutes by train from Edinburgh), married the King of France. At this time, Scotland was a Protestant country and France was a Catholic country. Mary moved to France with her husband. This video is about her return to Scotland.

Watch the video and answer the questions

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/4130.html>

1. Why was Mary crying?
2. How long had she been married to the King of France?
3. How old was she?
4. Where was she living?
5. When did she leave France?
6. Where did she land in Scotland?
7. Why were the Scots nobles worried?
8. Why were Protestants worried?
9. How did Mary treat the Nobles?
10. What was Mary's own religion?
11. Why was John Knox worried about Mary and Catholicism?

Check your answers

1. Because her husband had died
2. 2 years
3. 17 years old
4. France
5. August 1561
6. Leith
7. They were afraid they would be replaced by Frenchmen
8. They thought Mary would try and make Scotland Catholic again
9. She relied on them
10. She was a Catholic
11. Because usually it was the rulers of a country who decided the religion of the country