

Arthur's Seat, Edinburgh –
a tourist's impression

Fill the gaps with the best preposition

“No matter _____ Edinburgh you stand, walk, drive or sit... Arthur's Seat WILL catch your eye. To get there walk _____ the Royal Mile _____ Holyrood Palace. Turn right _____ the parliament and it's _____ you. Then start climbing! :) When _____ the top you will realise it was worth the sweat and hard work! The view is amazing as long as it's not a cloudy day! Just watch _____ the crazy BMX-ers riding their bikes _____ the hill _____ 100000 km/hour... Also Arthur's Seat is a popular place for dog owners - keep that in mind if you're scared _____ dogs because there're always a few running free... Did you know??? Myths say there are secret tunnels _____ Edinburgh Castle _____ Holyrood Palace and apparently they're even _____ Arthur's Seat...”

Check your answers

“No matter where in Edinburgh you stand, walk, drive or sit... Arthur's Seat WILL catch your eye. To get there walk down the Royal Mile to Holyrood Palace. Turn right after the parliament and it's in front of you. Then start climbing! :) When at the top you will realise it was worth the sweat and hard work! The view is amazing as long as it's not a cloudy day! Just watch out for the crazy BMX-ers riding their bikes down the hill about 100000 km/hour... Also Arthur's Seat is a popular place for dog owners - keep that in mind if you're scared of dogs because there're always a few running free... Did you know??? Myths say there are secret tunnels from Edinburgh castle to Holyrood palace and apparently they're even under Arthur's Seat...”

Arthur's Seat, Edinburgh

